

Group Name:	POETRY FOR PLEASURE 1	Leader: GERALDINE GREEN
Meeting:	3 rd Wednesday of the month, 09:45am
Venue:	Mary's Place, Melton Mowbray (formerly Samworth Centre)
Contact:	poetry@u3ameltonmowbray.org.uk
Each month we have a chosen theme and members bring their own selection to read. The topics are wide ranging, from everyday subjects to more abstract themes. The poems cover a huge variety from serious to humorous, but are usually thought provoking. The emphasis is on pleasure; we do not adopt an academic or analytical approach but bring our own interpretations and thoughts to share. These can often lead to a discussion as interesting as the poems.
Last updated:	1 November 2019

Group Name:	POETRY FOR PLEASURE 2	Leader: GERALDINE GREEN
Meeting:	4th Wednesday of the month, 14:30
Venue:	At a member's house
Contact:	poetry@u3ameltonmowbray.org.uk
We start the meeting with an in-depth discussion of one of the poems read the previous month. Like the other group, we choose a topic or theme for each month. Sometimes our more creative members bring their own poems, adding an original perspective on the chosen subject. It is a leisurely and enjoyable afternoon, with plenty of time for conversation that may start with a poem but lead us on to other areas. We always welcome prospective new members who are invited to sit in on either a morning or an afternoon group.
Last updated:	14 March 2019	