Meetings: 10:00-12:00 1st Friday Friday at Tesco MM

WRITING FOR PLEASURE.

(Also known as Creative Writing and W4P).

The Melton Mowbray U3A Writing for Pleasure Group meets on the THIRD Friday each month, 10am – 12 noon in the Staff Training Room, Tesco Store, Thorpe Road, Melton Mowbray.

We meet in the Customer Reception Area at the front of the store and go up as a group.

Titles are suggested for each meeting although you may, of course, write on any subject that takes your fancy. Poetry is included.

Members are invited to read their pieces to the group although some people prefer to ask someone else to read the work for them.

So that everyone gets time to present their work, we have chosen an approximate limit of 1500 words.

This normally allows time for a short discussion afterwards. Constructive criticism, (and only constructive criticism), is allowed if the author invites it.

You don't have to write a piece for every meeting and, if you do, you don't have to present it.

We would prefer that you come to the meeting whether or not you have work to present.

(We can all learn by listening to others.)

Hoping to see you there.
