We are a small group, currently having 4 members with varying levels of skill in speaking and understanding Italian. We are not complete beginners although I think we would mostly consider ourselves beginners. We study using a range of books and CDs. We take our time to listen to Italian, but we also read, converse (very simply) and study grammar. If you are interested in joining the group please contact the group leader
